

Maya Serbu

Maya is a 12th grade student from Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. She loves reading and writing, and she has been doing musical theatre from the age of 7. When she's not onstage or writing she loves to be with her friends and family. Maya believes in the importance of being passionate, as well as spreading awareness about topics that she believes in, such as mental health. Maya had a message that she wanted people to hear, so she wrote life another love letter and addressed it to the world. wrote life a love letter and addressed it to the world.